

Growing Seattle's Urban Forest

Seattle reLeaf
keep the emerald city green

reLeaf's Mission

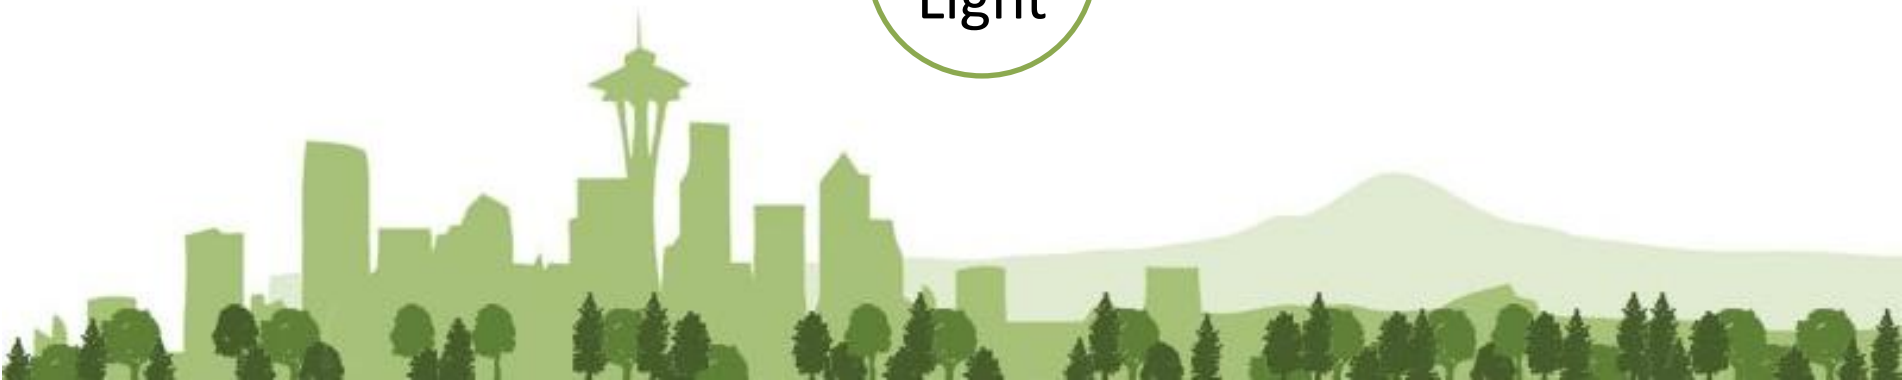

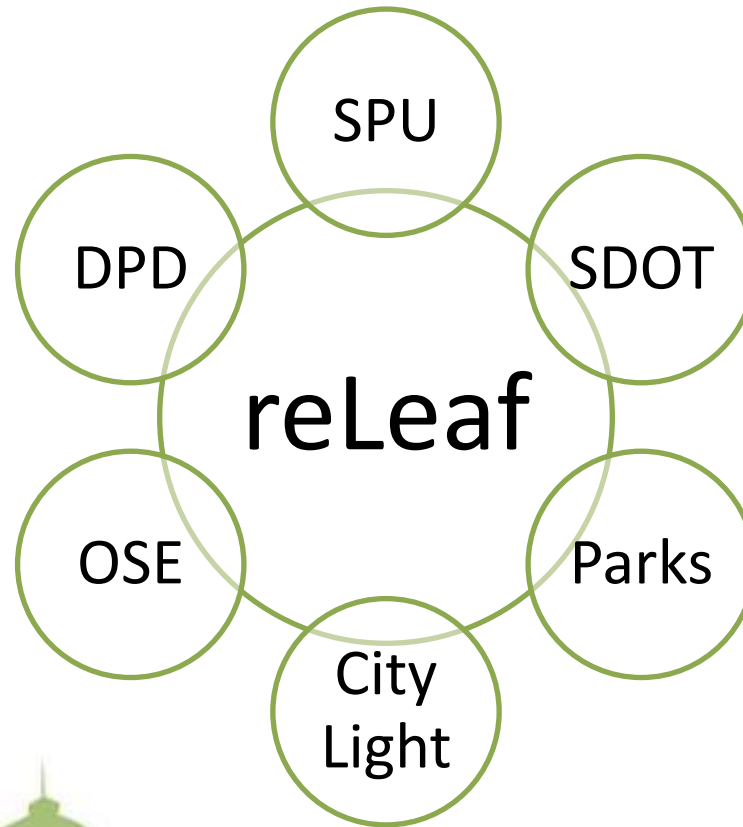

Increase canopy cover on private property by increasing residents' awareness of the urban forest and engaging residents in urban forest management.

Interdepartmental Work

Seattle reLeaf
keep the emerald city green

Program Elements

- City-wide Website
- Tree Ambassador
- Trees for Neighborhoods
- Support for Public
 - Questions for the Experts online portal

Website

www.Seattle.gov/trees

- Questions for the Experts portal
- Tree benefits
- How to get involved
- Management strategies

Tree Ambassador

- Urban forest stewardship
- 40 volunteers in 12 neighborhood teams
- Complete 7-week training
- Projects include tree care, tree walks, local outreach, tree planting
- Partnership with Forterra, funded by USFS

Trees for Neighborhoods

- Planted 2,300 trees with over 900 households
- Planting workshops
- Pruning workshops
- Watering and care reminders
- Targeted outreach

